League City Intermediate School

Counseling Program Disclosure

The mission of League City Intermediate School, the leader in educational excellence, is to inspire and empower all members of the Bobcat Community to succeed and actualize their potential through a dynamic system of shared responsibility, grounded in nurturing relationships and distinguished by individual opportunity, mutual respect, and personal integrity.

Within Clear Creek ISD the mission of the Department of Counseling and Student Services , the alliance of synergistic interdisciplinary support systems, is to intentionally embrace barriers, empower students, and ensure access to learning to promote resiliency, life-readiness skills, and the unique strengths of each student through a holistic approach distinguished by assessment, prevention, intervention, integrity, and personal connections.

Areas of Focus:

Guidance Curriculum

Helps students develop transferable skills relative to their educational , career, personal, and social development. It is taught based on curricular content areas, student competency indicators, and developmental stages through differentiated learning activities with planned lessons for various-sized groups of students.

Parents my review materials and curriculum used at a campus by scheduling an appt. with the counselor during regular school hours.

Responsive Services

Intervene of behalf of any student whose immediate personal concerns, circumstances, put their continued educational, career, personal, and social development at risk.

- To meet the personal needs of students, school counselors my offer short-term skills-based support groups of a recurring basis. These groups meet during the day for approx. 20-45 minutes once a week. The counselor will consult with the student's schedule to determine a time at which the student misses the least amount of academic instruction at possible. hese groups are intended to provide a safe, confidential, and supportive setting for the students to discuss concerns and practice behaviors that will support growth and development.
- Parents/Guardians can opt into their child participating in short-term skills-based groups in the back-to-school paperwork. School counselors will inform aprents if their student would benefit from particiapting in a skills group.
- In some situations, a counselor may request to assistance of a student support consultant. Written consent from a studetn's parent/guardian is required prior to the student with the district student support consultant.

Individual Planning

Guide all students as they plan, monitor, and manage their own educational, career, personal, & social development. Information regarding to the topics below may be provided:

- The importance of College, Career, Military and Life-Readiness
- Goal Setting
- Course offerings, and how to make the most of academic and CTE opportunities.
- Graduation requirements, pathways, earning endorsements and completing the distinguised level of achievement.
- How to applyfor scholarhsips, financial aid and the importance of completing the FAFSA or TAFSA for graduation.

System Support

Identify and coordinate resources and activities on campus and in the community that indirectly benefit students. Counselors can provide you with a list of community resources that may be available to provide additional support for your student.
