

SCHOOL-BASED RESTORATIVE APPROACHES:

Proactive Practices for Flourishing Classrooms

This interactive, one-day workshop focuses on the proactive foundations of School-Based Restorative Approaches (SBRA), and daily relationship-building practices to strengthen classroom climate, prevent conflict, and align with PBIS, SEL, and a schoolwide system of support.

Participants will:

- Identify simple, consistent routines that build safety, belonging, and accountability in the classroom.
- Practice classroom strategies such as circles, validation, and restorative questions.
- Understand SBRA as a proactive, relationship-centered approach to discipline.
- Apply the lens of "behavior as communication" to everyday situations.
