The Fall 2026 Book Fair was a huge success! Thank you to all who supported our fair. We had record sales of approximately $7000, for a profit of nearly $2500 in books and funds for the LC. A special thank you to our parent volunteers for giving your time and effort to support our school.

The Annual Crosstown Classic Race is back! Home & School is excited to announce the Crosstown Classic again this year! We hope that as many of you as possible are able to attend and look forward to seeing all of the kids run just because they can! More information to come.

WHERE: Jefferson Junior High School

Enjoy a festive fall weekend at Keller's Farmstand and earn money for Scott School!

More Info and Flyer to Come!

Our Popsicles on the Playground brought incoming Kindergarten students, and new families together for an afternoon of community fun. Events like this help strengthen relationships and create welcoming spaces for families and students!

What a night for our annual block party! It was amazing to see so many Scott families come out and enjoy a back to school kickoff event. Thank you to the families, staff, parent and student volunteers, club organizations and Home and School committees that helped make it possible. We are excited for more events to share with our Scott community!
