ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Boys Golf would like to nominate Landyn Whitson for Athletic of the Week: Senior, Landyn shot the best round of the year for the Trojans with 12 points and 42 strokes in our match against Kennedy Catholic. Landyn has been working really hard to recover his game after dealing with an early season illness that set him back for a few weeks. His determination and dedication to practice have resulted in some fantastic golf at just the right time.

Aaliyah Pounds

with

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Cross Country nominates Aaliyah Pounds for AOTW: Senior captain Aaliyah Pounds delivered a standout breakthrough performance on Saturday, clocking a season-best time of 21:01. Serving as our reliable #3 runner all year, Aaliyah consistently defeats rival teams' top runners to lock in crucial league wins. Beyond her strong performances, she sets the standard for leadership through relentless effort and constant encouragement.

Edgar Florian

with

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Cross Country nominates Edgar Florian for AOTW: Edgar has set three personal records in the 5K this year. His latest PR was on Saturday at the Twilight Invitational which was a minute faster than his PR from last year. Edgar trained consistently during the summer and has been steadily improving each week. He's positive and works diligently in practice, always willing to do extra in order to get better.

Cesar Cisneros-Banuelos

with

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Boys water polo nominates Cesar Cisneros-Banuelos as Athlete of the Week: Cesar is a hardworking and dedicated athlete that encourages and pushes the team in and out of the water. You will never catch Cesar with a bad attitude even at our hardest games. He not only pushes himself but pushes his teammates whether that is at the pool or during games. He is an amazing teammate and athlete.
