POEMS

HALLOWEEN FUN

BY ADA CLARK

We like to go, on Halloween
All up and down our street,
Dressed up like ghosts and witches bad,
And frighten those we meet.

I like the lively jack o' lanterns
That wink and blink at me.
The screeching bats and creeping cats
Are funny as can be.

I like to eat the pumpkin pies
That mother makes - yum, yum!
Oh, I'm so very glad each year,
When Halloween has come!

Autumn

Spooks in the attic
Ghosts in the park.
Slithery black cats
That hiss in the dark.
Pumpkins in the corn fields
Gold amongst the brown,
Leaves of rust and scarlet
Tumbling slowly down.

"October! October!
There's magic in the name —-
A clear sky, a blue sky,
And sunsets all aflame.

October! October!
It's harvest time again;
The high corn, the low corn,
Is gathered in the bin.

October! October!
The birds sing with swelled throats;
A long song, a last song,
Of tender parting notes.

October! October!
The hills are all aglow
With red leaves, with gold leaves,
That dance when soft winds blow.

October! October!
I love you more each year;
Your warm days, your soft days,
To me they are most dear."
