MEET THE KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Dr. Gladys Barbosa Labas, Ph.D.

Associate Professor, Educational Leadership and Policy Studies

Dr. Labas is a nationally recognized leader in bilingual education and equity, a coauthor of Connecticut's Bilingual Law, and a 2026 inductee into the National Association of Bilingual Education Hall of Fame. She brings decades of experience shaping policy and practice for multilingual learners.

WHAT YOU'LL EXPLORE

- Gain clarity on Connecticut's EL/ML Framework and its implications for district-wide planning and implementation
- Thought-provoking insights from a nationally recognized keynote speaker on equity, language development, and educational leadership
- Learn how districts are strengthening outcomes for multilingual learners through effective instructional practices
- Connect with peers to share ideas, challenges, and successful approaches to supporting multilingual learners

This workshop is offered at no cost, and space is limited. Reserve your seat today! Due to capacity, registration is limited to two attendees per district.
