

During asynchronous learning days, activities will be sent home to support your child's continued learning. Our early education staff will be participating in professional development, in-services, trainings, and required learning to meet the standards of the Office of Early Childhood (OEC), and engage in the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) reaccreditation process. We appreciate your support in fostering a home/school learning connection while our team continues to grow and strengthen our program.
