

Full-Time Spanish Teacher

Bishop England High School | Charleston, South Carolina

Bishop England High School is seeking a full-time Spanish teacher to join our World Languages Department. As a Catholic, college-preparatory school, Bishop England is committed to educating the whole student through academic excellence, faith formation, and the development of character and service.

We are looking for a nurturing, enthusiastic, and student-centered educator who is passionate about teaching Spanish and building meaningful relationships with students. The ideal candidate will create a positive and engaging classroom environment where students feel supported, challenged, and encouraged to grow both academically and personally.

Responsibilities

The Spanish teacher will:

- Teach Spanish courses at the high school level and provide engaging, appropriately challenging instruction.
- Develop and implement lessons that promote communication in Spanish and meaningful cultural understanding.
- Create a welcoming, well-organized classroom environment that supports student learning and encourages active participation.
- Build positive relationships with students and foster a classroom culture grounded in respect, encouragement, and high expectations.
- Assess student learning through a variety of formative and summative assessments and provide meaningful feedback.
- Adapt instruction and provide appropriate support to meet the needs of individual learners.
- Communicate effectively and professionally with students, parents, colleagues, and school administration.
- Collaborate with members of the World Languages Department and participate in professional learning and school-wide initiatives.
- Maintain accurate records of attendance, grades, and student progress.

- Participate in faculty meetings, professional development, and other school activities.
- Serve as a positive role model for students and contribute to the overall life and community of the school.

Qualifications

Required:

- Bachelor's degree in Spanish, Education, or a related field, or a teaching degree/certification with appropriate Spanish language proficiency.
- Prior teaching experience or preparation through a teacher education program.
- Strong written and verbal communication skills in English and Spanish.
- Ability to establish positive relationships with students and create a supportive, structured learning environment.

Preferred:

- Experience with ACTFL proficiency-based language instruction and/or familiarity with ACTFL World-Readiness Standards.
- Experience teaching Spanish at the secondary level.
- Experience with Honors and/or Advanced Placement Spanish.
- Familiarity with proficiency-based assessment and communicative language teaching.

The Ideal Candidate

The ideal candidate is a nurturing and relationship-oriented educator who:

- Enjoys working with adolescents and takes an active interest in their academic and personal growth.
- Brings enthusiasm, energy, and creativity to the Spanish classroom.
- Holds students to high expectations while providing the encouragement and support they need to meet them.
- Values collaboration and is willing to contribute to the life of the department and school community.

- Is committed to continuous professional growth and effective, student-centered language instruction.
- Understands the unique role of a Catholic school in educating the whole person and is supportive of Bishop England's mission.

Position

Position: Full-Time Spanish Teacher

School: Bishop England High School

Location: Charleston, South Carolina

Employment: Full-Time

Interested candidates should submit a resume/CV and references for consideration.

Bishop England High School is committed to providing a supportive, challenging, and faith-filled educational environment in which students are encouraged to develop their God-given talents and become compassionate, responsible members of their communities.