

Family School Compact School Year 2026-2027

Cleveland Metropolitan School District, scholars participating in the Title I, Part A program, and their families, agree that this compact outline how the family, the entire school staff and the scholar will share the responsibility for improved scholar academic achievement as well as describe how the school and families will build and develop a partnership that will help scholars achieve the state's high standards.

School Goals

Schools will provide high-quality curriculum and instruction and do so in a supportive and effective learning environment. Schools will also provide engagement strategies outlined in the Academic Achievement Plan. Parent/Teacher conferences will be held during the district recommended dates. Parents will be provided an Electronic Gradebook account to access their students' progress, grades, attendance and assignment completion.

Teachers, Families, Scholars – Together for Success

The Classroom

With administrator and/or teacher notification and approval, parents may visit, participate in and observe the classrooms.

Teachers will communicate with families using the Electronic Gradebook, Remind, Class Dojo, and use other school communication strategies.

Contact will be established and maintained through conferences, Open House, informal conversations, IVR

At Home

Ways in which parents and families will support their scholar's learning:

- Monitoring attendance (virtual and in person)
- Consistently reviewing school website
- Creating a schoolwork space at home
- Making sure that homework is completed.
- Promoting positive use of scholar's extracurricular time
- Staying informed about my scholar's education and communication with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school or the school district
- Participate in parent teacher conferences

Scholars

Ways in which scholars will support their academic achievement:

Do homework every day and ask for help when needed.

Read at least 30 minutes every day outside of school time.

Prepare, attend, and participate in virtual and in person instruction.

Take care of and be responsible for any technology needed to stay fully engaged in instruction.

Give to parents or the adults responsible for scholar welfare all notices and information received from school every day.

School Parent and Family Engagement Policy

School Year 2026-2027

To support every student's academic growth, (School Name) receives Title I, Part A funding. As part of this program, we work together with families to create a Parent and Family Engagement Policy with a shared commitment to student achievement.

This policy outlines how we'll collaborate with parents and caregivers to meet the goals of Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), Section 1116. It will be:

- Developed and agreed upon together with families of participating students
- Shared in clear, easy-to-understand language—and translated when possible
- Available to the community on our website and updated regularly to reflect your needs

The policy sets expectations for how we'll engage families and describe specific activities that support meaningful involvement in your child's education.

We believe that strong partnerships between schools and families lead to student success.

Stay connected, get involved, and help shape the future of our school community!

School Name understands that Parent and family engagement is about building strong, two-way communication between families and schools. It means working together to support student learning and school success. This includes:

- Helping children learn: Parents and families play a key role in supporting their child's learning at home and in school.
- Being involved at school: Families are encouraged to take part in school activities and stay connected with what's happening in their child's education.
- Partnering in decision-making: Families are valued partners in shaping their child's education and may be invited to join school committees or give input on important decisions.

School Name agrees to implement the following requirements as outlined by ESSA Section 1116:

A. ANNUAL TITLE I MEETING

School Name will host an annual meeting at a convenient time for families. All parents and guardians of participating students will be invited and encouraged to attend. During the meeting, we will share important information about:

- The Title I program and how it supports student learning
- What Title I mean for families
- The school's policy on parent and family engagement
- The schoolwide improvement plan
- The agreement between the school, parents, and students (school-parent compact)

When will meetings be held and what other information regarding school policy, procedures, initiatives will be shared during mandated school activities and on an 'as needed basis.

B. FLEXIBLE NUMBER OF MEETINGS

School Name will offer a flexible number of family engagement meetings based on the current OPHAS level, as described in Part A. These meetings will be scheduled at times that are convenient for families, such as in the morning or evening. If the state is at OPHAS Level 1, Title I funds may be used to support participation by providing services like transportation, childcare, or home visits, if these services are connected to family engagement efforts.

What family engagement meetings will be held, what time, date, and platform?

C. JOINTLY DEVELOPED

School Name are committed to actively involving parents and families in meaningful and consistent ways. Together, we will plan, review, and improve our Title I, Part A programs — including shaping our school's parent and family engagement policy and developing our schoolwide program plan. Your voice matters, and your partnership helps us build stronger schools and brighter futures.

- Specific meetings or activities will take place to engage families and support building their capacity to provide feedback and suggestions on the school policy, compact, AAP, and other school initiatives.

D. COMMUNICATION

- School Name will provide families, caregivers, and community members of participating children with timely and accessible information about programs under Title I. This includes:
 - A clear description and explanation of the curriculum being used,
 - The types of academic assessments used to measure student progress,
 - The achievement levels aligned with the challenging State academic standards, and
 - Opportunities—upon request—for regular meetings where families and stakeholders can offer suggestions and actively participate in decisions related to their children's education. We will respond to such suggestions as promptly as possible.
- Information about school programs, family and community engagement activities, and related meetings will be shared in a format that is understandable and consistent. Alternative formats will be provided upon request, and, to an extent practicable, in languages that families and caregivers can understand.

List communication strategies and include information on ESL families if applicable

E. DISSENSION PROCESS

School Name will submit any comments/concerns to the CMSD Office of Family and Community Engagement if the schoolwide plan and/or parent and family engagement policy is not satisfactory to parents and family members.

Any comments/concerns can be emailed to the Executive Director of Family and Community Engagement, Tracy Hill, at tracy.hill@clevelandmetroschools.org.

F. SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT

School Name will collaborate with parents and families of enrolled students to co-create a School-Family Compact. This shared agreement will outline how families, educators, school staff, and students will work together to support academic success. It will highlight each partner's role in helping children meet the state's high academic standards and explain how the compact will be used, reviewed, and updated regularly to reflect our shared goals and progress.

Explain how school-parent compact will be developed and when it will be distributed (can be included on webpage, emailed to parents, posted in office, etc.)

G. BUILD CAPACITY OF PARENTS

- School Name will be committed to empowering parents and families as essential partners in their children's education. Through meaningful collaboration, we aim to strengthen family engagement and build lasting connections between home, school, and community to support student success. Our efforts will include:
- Providing accessible materials and interactive training that help families support their children's learning at home. This includes literacy development, responsible use of technology (including awareness around copyright practices), and other tools that promote active family involvement.
- Offering clear and supportive guidance to help families understand key educational topics, such as:
 - State academic content and achievement standards
 - State and local assessments, including alternate assessments
 - Title I, Part A requirements
 - Strategies for monitoring student progress
 - Ways to collaborate effectively with educators to enhance student achievement
- Partnering with families to educate school staff—including teachers, support personnel, principals, and leaders—on the value of family contributions. Together, we'll explore best practices for communication, collaboration, and inclusive engagement that treat families as equal partners in education.
- Integrating family engagement efforts across programs, including federal, state, and local initiatives such as public preschool. We'll also support family resource centers and provide materials that encourage and celebrate family participation in every aspect of their child's educational journey.

List of other activities

H. ACCESSIBILITY

School Name will be committed to ensuring that all parents and families—regardless of language, ability, or background—have meaningful opportunities to participate in their children's education. Whenever possible, we will provide information, including school reports required under Section 1111, in formats and languages that are accessible and understandable to all caregivers, including those with limited English proficiency, disabilities, or who are part of migratory communities.
