

Ashe County Schools Celebrates October Employees of the Month

Ashe County Schools is proud to recognize Brandi Reedy, teacher at Ashe Early Learning Center, and Kayla Moore, bookkeeper/data manager at Westwood Elementary School, as our October Employees of the Month! These dedicated professionals play important roles in creating supportive learning environments, keeping school operations running smoothly, and ensuring students, staff, and families receive the care and assistance they need.

Brandi Reedy | Ashe Early Learning Center

As a teacher at Ashe Early Learning Center, Brandi Reedy helps lay the foundation for lifelong learning for our preschool children. Her patience, compassion, and willingness to help wherever needed make a meaningful difference in the lives of her students and the colleagues who work alongside her.

Her co-workers describe Brandi as someone who consistently goes above and beyond for children, colleagues, and the school community. One colleague shared, “She brings a positive attitude to work, works hard, and genuinely cares about creating a loving, safe, and supportive environment for the children.”

Beyond her work with students, Brandi is recognized for being a dependable teammate who strengthens the school community through her kindness, professionalism, and readiness to lend a hand. Her positive spirit and commitment to others have earned the admiration of those around her.

“Brandi is a true inspiration. She always has a smile on her face, and kind words to say. She is professional, caring, supportive, and she is always willing to lend a hand. Brandi is the type of teacher who inspires children to be the future teachers of our community,” a colleague shared.

Kayla Moore | Westwood Elementary School

As bookkeeper/data manager at Westwood Elementary School, Kayla Moore helps keep essential school operations organized and running efficiently. From managing financial responsibilities and processing funds to maintaining student data, her work supports the daily needs of the school and helps teachers and staff focus on what matters most: students.

Kayla is praised by her colleagues for her positive attitude, helpfulness, and professionalism, even during especially busy times. With school fundraisers, family nights, and numerous activities requiring money to be collected and managed, her attention to detail and dependable support are essential to the school's success.

One colleague noted, “Kayla is always helpful and positive when a teacher or staff member needs help. She has had to miss work a lot this year, but she still comes back with a positive attitude and works hard. We have had so many fundraisers, family nights, and money turned in for so many things I can imagine it has been overwhelming for her, but you would never know it! I am so glad she works in our office as our finance and data manager!”

Another colleague highlighted Kayla's impact behind the scenes, sharing, “Kayla is a true professional who is welcoming every time I visit the school. She keeps all those things that go on behind the scenes running perfectly. I enjoy her positivity and love for WWES.”

Celebrating the People Who Make a Difference

Brandi Reedy and Kayla Moore both exemplify the dedication, teamwork, and care that make Ashe County Schools a special place to learn and work—they demonstrate how every role contributes to student success and a strong school community. Congratulations, ladies, on being named October Employees of the Month! Thank you for the positive difference you make each day for our students, colleagues, and the entire Ashe County Schools community.

###