NOTE FROM THE HEAD

Bill Delbrugge
Head of School

At Sage Ridge School, academic excellence is the foundation of everything we do. Every day, our student scholars are challenged to think deeply, ask meaningful questions, discover their passions, and become the curious, confident citizens we know they can be.

This year, they have shown what is possible when high expectations are paired with opportunity. From seminar-style classrooms and advanced coursework to Outdoor Education, the arts, athletics, service, and leadership opportunities, our student scholars are not simply receiving an education, they are actively shaping it.

Behind every opportunity is a community making it possible. To our generous donors, we offer our deepest thanks. Your generosity is woven into the daily experience of our students, in a classroom where a student discovers a new passion, on a field where a team learns the meaning of perseverance, on a stage where a young person finds the confidence to share their voice, or outside on the trail where students experience the wonder of learning in the world around them.

Your support creates possibilities. It gives our teachers the resources they need to inspire and challenge their students. It allows our student scholars to explore interests, pursue opportunities, and discover talents they may not have known they possessed. It helps make an exceptional education accessible and creates experiences they will carry with them long after they leave.

Most importantly, your gift tells a student, "We believe in you." That belief matters. It gives students the courage to try something new, the confidence to persevere, and the encouragement to imagine what they might accomplish in the future. Your generosity does more than support a program or purchase a resource, it invests in a young person and in the adult they will become.

We are deeply grateful for the trust you place in Sage Ridge School and for the confidence you have in our students and faculty. Every gift, regardless of size, represents a commitment to the future of our school and to the extraordinary young people entrusted to us. Together, our community makes it possible for Sage Ridge to be a place where students are known, challenged, supported, and inspired to become their very best selves.

When families, faculty, alumni, friends, and donors come together with a shared belief in our students, remarkable things happen. We see it in the classroom, in our students' accomplishments, their growing confidence, their willingness to lead, commitment to serving others, and excitement about what lies ahead.

The true measure of your generosity is not simply found in the programs we offer or the achievements we celebrate. It is found in the students whose lives are shaped by these opportunities. It is found in the young person who discovers a passion, the student who finds their voice, the athlete who learns to lead, the scholar who rises to a new challenge, and the graduate who leaves Sage Ridge prepared not only for a meaningful and purposeful life.

Thank you for believing in Sage Ridge. Thank you for believing in our teachers. Most of all, thank you for believing in our students. Because of you, they have more opportunities to learn, more opportunities to grow, and more opportunities to discover the extraordinary possibilities that lie ahead. We could not do what we do without you, and we hope you know just how deeply grateful we are for the difference you make every day.

Together, we are not simply supporting a school. We are investing in the future of our students and there is no greater investment we can make.

Educationally Yours,

Bill Delbrugge

WHERE RIGOR MEETS REAL-WORLD LEARNING

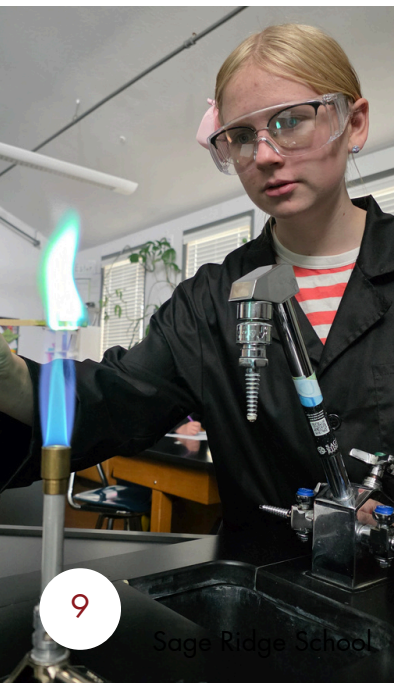

Learning That Is Applied, Not Just Acquired

At Sage Ridge, students don't just learn concepts—they test ideas, gather data, build solutions, and engage directly with the world around them.

- Science is hands-on, with labs and dissections beginning early and field-based environmental research with leading organizations.
- History is built on primary sources and debate, and presentations bring it to life.
- English develops analytical writing through full texts and thesis work.

This approach builds not just knowledge, but the ability to think, communicate, and lead.

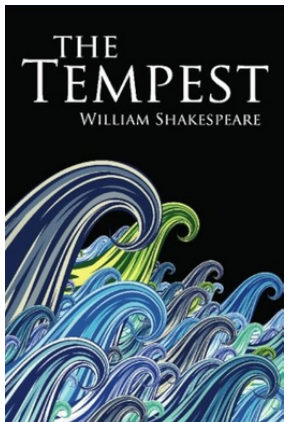

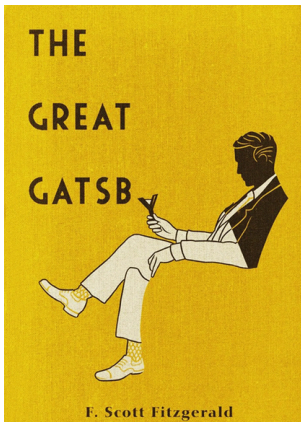

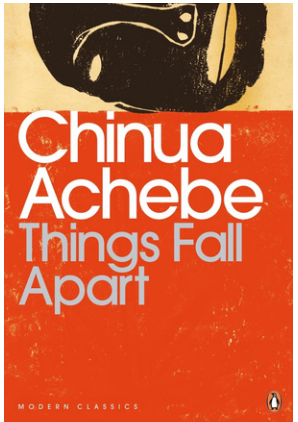

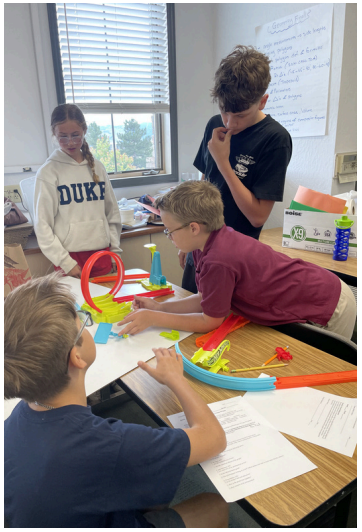

SAGE SESSION

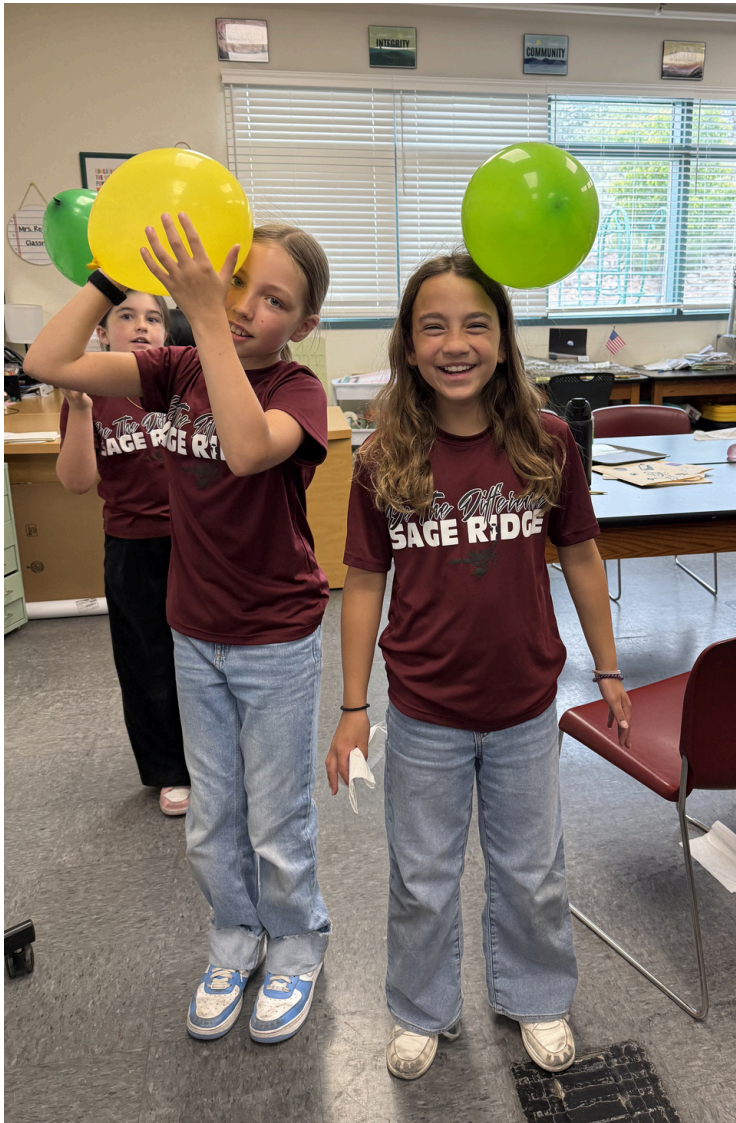

Curiosity, Choice and Exploration

Each spring, Sage Session transforms the school experience. Sage Session reflects the belief that students learn best when they are engaged, invested, and exploring ideas that matter to them. Students choose from immersive courses designed by faculty passions—ranging from engineering and finance to creative arts and global travel. It is a culminating experience where learning becomes personal, exploratory, and deeply engaging.

INNOVATION & APPLIED LEARNING

Design. Build. Lead

Students develop the ability to solve problems, collaborate, and innovate—skills essential for careers that do not yet exist.

In our Innovation Lab and across disciplines, students design, build, and iterate.

With access to advanced tools and guided by expert faculty, students develop solutions, test ideas, and think like engineers, scientists, and creators.

COMMUNITY & ENGAGEMENT

A Community That Knows Every Student

Student success is strongest when students are known—and at Sage Ridge, they are. Faculty, families, and peers form a connected network that supports each student's academic and personal growth. Combined, they contribute thousands of hours in service, mentorship, and engagement—creating a culture of connection and shared purpose. Beyond the campus, students actively serve and engage with the Reno-Tahoe community, developing empathy and responsibility.

ALUMNI IMPACT

A Lasting Impact Beyond Sage Ridge

Sage Ridge alumni carry forward the school's pillars into their careers and communities.

Their work reflects the foundation built here—intellectual curiosity, ethical leadership, and a commitment to making a difference.

The annual Alumni Basketball Game brought graduates, families, and current students together for a lively evening on the court. The event has become a long-standing Sage Ridge tradition, drawing strong attendance year after year as alumni return to reconnect, compete, and celebrate their shared history. This year's game was well attended, as former players faced off in a friendly matchup that highlighted the strength of the Sage Ridge community.

Maddy Dutton '23 is thriving at Pepperdine University, where Sage Ridge's rigorous academics prepared her to excel from her first semester. She spent a year studying abroad in Florence, traveling to more than fifteen countries and gaining global perspective and independence. She is now building professional experience through a fashion marketing internship focused on experiential events and brand storytelling.

The alumni commencement address delivered by EB Armstrong '13, who earned her MBA from Harvard and is now Director of Corporate Strategy at Upwork. She spoke about the lasting influence of her Sage Ridge education and encouraged seniors to lead with purpose, curiosity, and integrity. Her message was warmly received and served as a powerful reminder of the impact Sage Ridge alumni continue to make in their fields and communities.
