School Determination Form for 2026–2027

Please read the information carefully before making your selection.

Conditions for Remaining at Current School:

- Families must provide daily transportation to and from school. The district will not provide busing for students who remain at the high school that is now outside their new attendance zone.
- This decision is final and cannot be reversed. Once the form is submitted and the deadline has passed, no changes will be allowed.
- Families acknowledge that this determination supports district planning for staffing, student scheduling, transportation, and curricular resources.
