Delaying alcohol, tobacco, and other drug use is good prevention.
"A child who gets through age 21 without smoking, using illegal drugs or abusing alcohol is virtually certain never to do so," says Joseph Califano, founder of CASA, Columbia University.

Parents – Send Clear Messages. Teens View Silence as Approval.

Communicating disapproval of underage drinking is the most effective message parents and parental figures can send to youth.

Underage drinking is NOT a harmless rite of passage.

Underage alcohol use is more likely to kill young people than all illegal drugs combined.
