CLEVELAND METROPOLITAN SCHOOL DISTRICT

Family School Compact
School Year 2026-2027

Mary B Martin Girls Leadership Academy, scholars participating in the Title I, Part A program, and their families, agree that this compact outline how the family, the entire school staff and the scholar will share the responsibility for improved scholar academic achievement as well as describe how the school and families will build and develop a partnership that will help scholars achieve the state's high standards.

School Goals

- Schools will provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment. Schools will also provide engagement strategies outlined in the Academic Achievement Plan.
- Parent/Teacher conferences will be held during the district recommended dates.
- Parents will be provided with an Electronic Gradebook account to access their students' progress, grades, attendance and assignment completion.

Teachers, Families, Scholars – Together for Success

The Classroom

- With administrator contact, teacher notification and approval, parents may visit, participate in and observe the classrooms.
- Teachers will keep parents and families informed about educational practices and scholar practices through Class Dojo for real-time and CMSD gradebook for academic reports
- Teachers will maintain two-way communication with families.

At Home

Ways in which parents and families will support their scholar's learning:

- Ensuring on-track attendance
- Reviewing Parent Handbook and CMSD code of conduct, understanding school rules, cooperating with staff and reinforcing behavior expectations.
- Keeping contact information up to date and staying connected with Class Dojo
- Making sure that homework is completed.
- Participating in scheduled parent/teacher conferences and other arranged parent meetings.

Scholars

Ways in which scholars will support their academic achievement:

- Do homework every day and ask for help when needed.
- Read at least 30 minutes every day outside of school time.
- Prepare, attend, and participate in classroom instruction.
- Take care of and be responsible for any technology needed to stay fully engaged in instruction.
- Give parents or your responsible adult all notices and information received from school every day.
