As a parent of a student in Duplin County School System, you have the right to know the professional qualification of the classroom teachers who instruct your child. Federal law allows you to ask certain information about your child's classroom teachers, and requires us to give this information in a timely manner if you ask for it. Specifically, you that the right to ask for the following information about each of your child's classroom teachers:

Whether North Carolina Department of Public Instruction has licensed or qualified the teacher for the grades and subjects he or she teachers.

Whether North Carolina Department of Public Instruction has decided that the teacher can teach in a classroom without being licensed or qualified under state regulations because of special circumstances.

The teacher's college major; whether the teacher has an advanced degree and, if so, the subject of the degrees.

Whether any teacher's assistants or similar paraprofessionals provide services to your child and, if they do, their qualifications.

If you would like to receive any of the information listed above, please call Human Resources at (910) 290-6626.
