Smokey Summer at Grandma's Trailer

Rachael Marjamaa

Vessels inspired by the trinkets lingering under beds and behind couches in my Grandma's home. Pots thrown to hold all my memories tucked away in the dusty corners of her trailer, and are also good for holding soup and coffee.

Rachael Marjamaa is a multidisciplinary artist based in Butte, Montana. Having a foundation in fiber art, her compositions draw inspiration from structures and motifs found in knitting patterns, and traditional Finnish ryijy/ takana tapestries. Her artistic perspective is heavily influenced by her background in agriculture, upbringing in Butte, and the practical elegance of utilitarian artwork.

Rachael is a 2016 GFH alumni working full time as an artist in Butte.

Her exhibit is on view through November 22nd.

Access for non-District employees is reserved for after academic hours or by reservation. Call Cortni Harant, department head and gallery manager, at 406-260-6532 to schedule a viewing or visit the gallery after 3:15 Monday through Friday and anytime the building is open Saturday and Sunday. The gallery is located in front of the Davidson Family Auditorium.
