

Dear Families,

We're excited to share that the Scholastic Book Fair will be at RMMS November 16th-20th! You should soon receive a brochure highlighting some of the fun and engaging books your young readers may see at the fair. Every purchase you make supports our school, allowing us to add new books, technology, and enrichment resources to the RMMS classrooms and library each year!

Your child will have the opportunity to visit the fair during school hours. Each class will have a scheduled time for shopping during the week and an "open shopping" time will be available on Friday for any who can't make their class visit or want to do some extra shopping.

Students can purchase books using eWallet (our convenient digital payment option), exact change cash, or checks made out to the Brookline PTO. We highly recommend using eWallet! If you've set up an eWallet before, any remaining balance from prior fairs will automatically carry over.

Due to the ongoing coin shortage, starting this year, the book fair will be coinless. All cash purchases will be rounded up to the nearest dollar and the change amount will be donated to our Share the Fair fund. Purchases made with checks and eWallet will not automatically be rounded up.

Share the Fair is Scholastic's giving program that helps bring the joy of reading to every student. Our school uses this program to cover small overages for students who are just a few cents short, to provide a book for children who couldn't bring money and for raffle winners. 100% of your donation is used for these purposes. When you set up your child's e-wallet, it's easy to add a little extra for Share the Fair.

To stay updated, please visit our Scholastic Book Fair homepage by scanning this QR code —>

While you're there, you will find:

- Instructions for setting up an eWallet
- The schedule for classroom visits
- A link to a volunteer sign-up
- Information on Share the Fair donations
- A 360° virtual tour link to preview the fair, including video book trailers

The book fair will also be open during the Fall Festival on Thursday, November 19th from 6-7:30pm at RMMS where you can shop as a family. Teachers will showcase their favorite books in special bins for any who would like to purchase and dedicate books as gifts for their classrooms.

Finally, if you're able, we'd love your help! Volunteers are needed to set up, take down and assist students as they explore the fair. You'll find a link to sign up on the book fair homepage.

Happy Reading,
The Brookline PTO
