3) Superintendent and Director Reports

Superintendent Josh Hurt

- Great start to the new year. Quiet hallways and active classrooms. About 1,500 students are enrolled in pre-K–12.
- Attendance is high. One of the highest starts that we have had.
- There will be a Patriot Day ceremony at MCES for the 25th anniversary of 9/11.
- Action item 5B is the tax rate for 26-27. Tonight's vote will set the tax rate at 51.3 for real estate and 56.6 for motor vehicles.
- There is a slight update to the salary schedule on action item 5D. There are some duties that our folks will have to take care of that are not included in our contract with Arbitor.
- Congrats to board member Robby Parnell, who was recently featured in the KSBA Kentucky School Advocate magazine.

Rachel Dial – Instruction

- Diagnostic testing is underway. Grades K-8 are using i-Ready for progress monitoring. Grades 9-12 are using Progress Learning. It will help with both ACT and SAT testing.
- The new KSA (Kentucky Summative Assessment) scores will be released Oct. 15.
- FRYSC Holiday Assistance applications will be accepted beginning Sept. 14.

LeAnne Bell – MCMS

- MCMS had all but 23 students attend the Back to School Bash. There have been several new enrollments.
- Classrooms have lots of exciting things going on in them.

- Beginning band students have just started learning to play, and it is so exciting to see them working to learn. The program is growing very quickly. Mrs. Blakely is a very good instructor and director for the students.
- MCMS started a “House” system this year, and students loved naming and creating the identifying traits of their Family House. MCMS will use these for testing, to compete for points in numerous competitions, and for recognition.
- The following MCMS students received 4-H awards at the Kentucky State Fair:
 - Matthew Lunz
 - Lucy Blythe
 - Keith Shive
 - Hadley Blaydes
 - Allie June Smith
 - Ava Caffee
 - Lucy Winchester
 - Aariah Zurmehly
 - Marlee Reed
 - Lucas Romines
 - Skylin Harmon
- The MCMS football and softball teams are both nearing the end of their seasons. Both are focused on ending the season strong.

Micah Fields – LifeWise

- Approx. 240 Metcalfe County students in grades 1st – 8th have enrolled in LifeWise for the 26-27 school year. Last year, 45 students were enrolled when the program started.
- Services resume at the elementary school on Sept. 11. Services begin for the first time ever at the middle school on Sept. 22.
- The program has added new drivers and will be in operation four days a week.
- More volunteers are needed.

Joseph Eaton – MCHS

- Great start to the school year. The first two weeks of school have gone well, and it’s been great having everyone back in the building.
- Lady Hornet Volleyball continues to be impressive this season and is looking for another win against Clinton County this evening.
- Freshman and senior Informational meetings are on September 21 for parents and students. They will discuss graduation requirements and other important information.
- The parent meeting for juniors is on September 10 at 6:00PM to discuss fundraisers and other events for the 11th grade students.
- Yearbooks have arrived. Students can see Mrs. Hurt to pick up their yearbook.
- The Hornet Marching Band attended the Mark Twain Exhibition in Adair County and had a good showing. Students who have no experience are starting to join the band.
- District ACT is on October 14 at a discounted rate of $39.
- PSAT is being offered on October 20 at a discount of $14.
- SAT is being offered on October 21 with a limited number of waivers.
- FFA attended a forestry competition today. Several students received awards.

Kelly Bell: If the high school needs more waivers/vouchers for ACT/SAT testing, please let the board know.

Kelly Bell: Are middle school students taking the ACT/SAT?

LeAnne Bell: No, not yet.

Britt Young – Transportation

- Drivers are transporting some students to their home districts as required by the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act.
- All routes are running smoothly.

Rachel Dial: Regarding the McKinney-Vento Act, this is part of the Title I directive. This is for children who have been determined to have the most effective educational experience by attending the school in their home district.

Paige Crowe – MCES

- Great start to the new year in the building. Thank you to the MCES students, families, and staff for this great start.
- Beginning-of-year i-Ready testing is wrapping up with make-up exams.
- Many students have been recognized with BUZZ Awards:
 - B- Be best! Be safe, responsible, and respectful!!
 - U- Understanding and kind!
 - Z- Zero stings!
 - Z- Zing with excellence! Zero errors on test/work!
 - Paxton Ballard
 - Weston Jarrell
 - Adonis Brown
- Cross-country students are having a great year.
- State Fair 4-H results are coming in and will be announced soon.
- High Attendance Day is tomorrow. MCES will celebrate with “Learn and Chill,” which includes popsicles and drawings for prizes.
- Patriot Day is this Friday, Sept. 11. MCES will host a special ceremony for all local first responders beginning at 8:30 in the Old School Gym.
- The MCES Book Fair is Sept. 11-18.
- School Picture Day is on Monday, Sept. 14.
- 21st Century begins on Monday, Sept. 14.
- Grandparents Night is on Thursday, Sept. 17, 4pm-6pm.
- Looking forward to LifeWise beginning and expanding for more MCES students this year.
- All in for AG Education Week is Sept. 21-25. MCES will take part in agriculture lessons throughout the week. Guest readers will visit the classroom. Dress-Up Days are:
 - Battle of the Brands Day
 - Support Agroforestry Camo Day
 - Plaid or White Day
 - Dress like a Farmer
 - Blooming into Horticulture

Josh Hurt: Thank you to MCES teacher and All in for Ag Education coordinator, Lindsey Glass, for the hard work she has put in to make the upcoming celebration successful across the entire district.

Cheyenne Garmon – CFO

- Action item 5B, if approved, would set the 26-27 tax rates at 51.3 for real estate and 56.6 for motor vehicles.
- For action item 5C, the working budget includes updated salaries, items reflected in the audit, and regulations passed down from the federal level.
- Auditors will be in later this week to begin the district’s annual financial audit.

Jamie Moss – Exceptional Ed

- Good start to the new school year, with great staff.

Matt Shirley – Facilities

- Looking to surplus some items next month.
- The second facilities planning committee meeting is scheduled for Sept. 30 at 4pm. A public forum will follow at 5:30pm. The first meeting on Sept. 2 was productive.

Stacey Slinker – HR

- Action item 5D is a minor update to the current salary schedule, including some changes to bus drivers' pay.

Allen Trotter – DPP

- No comments.

Torrie Osbon – PR/Grants

- The COPS School Violence Prevention Program grant awards are expected to be announced around Oct. 1. We should know if we were approved by our next board meeting.
- Lots of positive PR work is taking place since the beginning of school.

Daniel Glass – Congratulations to MCMS 7th grader Heer Patel for being one of eight finalists in the Secretary of State's "I Voted" Sticker Contest.*
