Jack Philip Krill Jr

Jack Philip Krill Jr. moved to Vermilion when he was four years old. In high school he had 11 varsity letters, 4 track, 4 basketball and 3 football. In 1973 he was All Conference in basketball and football. He also won the Anchor Award in Football that year. In 1974 he received All Conference in basketball and football again. Along with All-State in basketball, honorable mention All-State in football, most athletic of his class and the Dickerhoff award. Also, in 1974 he broke the record for most rebounds in a game, 34, which still stands to this day. He also holds the record for career rebounds at 859. Jack was also recruited by the George Hill defensive coordinator for the great Woody Hayes.

After high school Jack played basketball at Ohio University as a preferred walk on. He went on to marry Colette (nee Stoll) Krill and has three children, Chas, Ashley (nee Krill) (Adam) West and Jack (J.P.) (Elena) Phillip Krill III. In addition, he has 6 grandchildren. Michael, Makenna, Luke, Adleigh, Brinkley and Meadow.

Throughout his lifetime in Vermilion, he has donated money and time towards Vermilion Schools and Athletics. Jack owed a business in Vermilion called Zone Expedited, Inc. which he sponsored teams. In 2007 the Zone Expedited, Inc. baseball team won state. Jack also was a part of the committee that helped build the West side football bleachers. His dad Jack Phillip Krill Sr. was also a part of the committee back when he was a student that built the East side bleachers. He's coached various teams throughout Vermilion. He coached middle school football and basketball from 1998-2001. Jack was the coach of the 7^{th} grade undefeated middle school football team in 2000.