

SESSION 3 (11:00 - 11:30 AM)

1. A Long-Term View: Student, Parent, and Alumni Panel

For families navigating dyslexia, language-based learning differences, or twice-exceptional (2e) giftedness, the school journey can feel like a constant battle. Join us for an intimate panel featuring parents who have lived the frustration, current students who are thriving in our classrooms, and graduates who have successfully taken their unique brains into higher education and the workforce.

Location: Blue 1

Presenter: Nikki Hamai Sakai, High School Principal

2. Supporting Your Child at Home

When it comes to supporting your child at home, you may wonder what kind of support is actually helpful. This session will share practical strategies to support reading and learning at home while also building confidence and independence.

Location: Yellow 1

Presenter: Tiana Lee, Director of Professional and Curriculum Development

3. When School is Hard, What Comes Next?

Intended for families at the start of their journey of discovery, this session will help families understand what is typical, what may signal a deeper challenge, and what to do next. Recognize signs to watch for, ask questions to deepen your understanding, and learn when additional support may be needed. We'll also share places to turn for guidance, evaluation, and next steps.

Location: Yellow 2

Presenter: Sandi Tadaki, Assistant Head of School and Director of Admissions
