*Only the name, address, date of birth and signature are required by law for Home Education students. Additional information is optional but helpful for record keeping purposes.

*All Home Education students are required to submit an annual evaluation. For example: If your entry date is June, your evaluation is due the following June. Failure to submit a annual evaluation will result in termination from Home Education. Students terminated for non-compliance of annual evaluation cannot re-enter Home Education for 180 days.

Home Education Acknowledgment

I understand that the Volusia County School District does not award high school diplomas to Home Education students. Under Florida law, the legal proof of completion is a signed and notarized Affidavit of Completion completed by the student's parent or guardian, pursuant to section 1002.41, Florida Statutes. I understand that pursuant to section 1007.263(2)(a), Florida Statutes, the Affidavit of Completion is the legal equivalent of a high school diploma and is accepted by Florida state colleges and universities as proof of high school completion.
