Joni Harris welcomed members of the Local School Library Advisory Council (LSLAC). Joni Harris announced the council chair, Sarah Sanabria, who received the majority of votes from voting members at the September 17 meeting.

Voting Procedures Review

The chairperson, Sarah Sanabria, reviewed the voting procedures, reminding members that motions must come from a voting member.

Approval of previous minutes

Chairperson, Sarah Sanabria, asked for a motion to approve the minutes from the previous meeting on September 17.

- Motion made by Wendy Tyler
- Seconded by Lori White
- Motion was carried unanimously

Review of Title List

Chairperson, Sarah Sanabria, asked if there were any further questions or discussions on the list of titles.

- The list was posted on both the Library Services Webpage and the School Library Advisory Council Board Citizen Advisory Council webpage on September 7, 2026 in accordance with the 30 day posting requirement.
- No public comments or objections were submitted during the review period.

Chairperson Sarah Sanabria asked for a motion to approve the titles as a block vote.

- Motion made by Lindsay Morrison
- Seconded by Tiffany Tepper

- Vote was unanimous to recommend adoption and acquisition of the block vote of titles for final board approval

Library Materials Community Submissions

Joni Harris shared that the following titles will be considered individually and that these titles were submitted by community members for consideration rather than by school librarians.

First title considered Texas Before the Lone Star by Daughters of the Republic.

- Committee discussed that the book seemed to be more of a textbook and noted that it was self published, having no professional reviews available.
- Sarah Sanabria, chair, ask for motion to either table until further review, move forward for board approval, or recommend denial.
    - Motion was made by Lindsay Morrison to request copy of book for committee review.
    - Seconded by Lori White.
    - Motion was carried forward with majority votes to table until further review of book

Second title considered Action Bible (Storybook) published by David C. Cook copyright 2010.

- Committee discussed the illustrations and graphic novel format of the book; discussion of the copyright of 2010; a question was asked about age and selection criteria - Joni explained that, following district selection criteria, librarians must have a balanced collection with a variety of texts as well as the age of the material, considering if another title with the same material is available in a newer copyright.
    - Motion was made by Laurie Williamson to approve the title
    - No second
    - Motion was made by Emily Moore not to accept
    - Seconded by Wendy Tyler
    - Motion not to accept was carried forward with a majority vote.

Third title considered The Action Bible published by David C. Cook, copyright 2020

- Committee discussed the format of the book being illustrated with stories and chapters. One member who had read the book previously said that the length of stories made it suitable for middle school and above; publisher age ratings are for elementary ages.
    - Motion was made to approve for elementary ages and above by Laurie Williamson
    - Seconded by Lindsay Morrison
    - Motion to send title to board for approval carries forward with majority vote.

The fourth title considered is the NIV Action Bible published by David C. Cook, copyright 2018.

- Committee discussed the summary and description of the book, stating that it was an activity book inviting students to complete activities in the book is a concern; discussed the book having no professional reviews
    - Motion not to move forward with approval made by Wendy Tyler
    - Seconded by Emily Moore
    - Motion not to approve this title carries forward with majority vote.
