 Attention to every human at CMS: INK-tober is HERE! Come join your fellow earthlings in the library any day you can during the month of October to practice our ink drawing skills. No talent is needed. Just bring a pen, some paper, and a positive attitude. We will announce each word every day in the bulletin. Today's word is: CONFUSED. Break out that sketch paper and pens and let your imagination take you where it may. We hope to see you at lunch in the library!

 Good luck to our Volleyball Teams when they travel to Los Arboles Middle School in Marina later this afternoon for their matches. Go Cougars!!

 Our very generous PTO will be sponsoring our Halloween Dance this Friday, October 23rd. The leadership class has a fun night in store for all of you. We will turn our main quad into a Spooky Halloween dance floor and activities area. We will have an awesome DJ, games, a photo area, pizza, and lots of treats. In addition, we will have our annual Halloween Costume Contest. It will be your job to come up with the scariest, most creative, most Halloweeniest, or the best group costume. Permission slips will be sent home on Wednesday. We hope to see you there!

 Did you travel over October break? Maybe you even brushed up on your geography knowledge along the way! If so, you're already ahead of the game! The Geography Bee Preliminary round is November 4th! Don't miss your chance to compete! Sign up with your social studies teacher or a librarian!

 Interested in playing basketball? Girls of all skill levels are invited to join us for Open Gym with Coach Tarr every Wednesday morning from 6:45–7:30am. Come get some extra shots up, work on your skills, play, and have fun! All girls interested in basketball are welcome.

 Do you love Film and Spookiness? Well Mr. Matheson and Mrs. Jeffries have a challenge for you! Make a 60 second horror film by this Friday, October 23rd following these requirements: PROMPT: You'll Never Be Alone ~ PROP: Must use a flashlight in a scene. VIDEO RULE: The audience must see something that the protagonist never sees. SOUND RULE: An important sound must be heard offscreen before the source is revealed visually.

Email or chat with Mr. Matheson or Mrs. Jeffries for more information or to borrow equipment! BOO!

 The Library's Giant Pumpkin is off on a field trip today to Mrs. Clarke's Math Classes! It's being measured, surveyed, and calculated—because apparently being a giant pumpkin is serious business! Haven't made your guess yet? You can see the magical gourd back in the Library tomorrow and make your best guess on the Library Webpage!

 From Mr. Stadille – the Science guy: Do you like money? Of course you do. Here is your chance to enter the world of extreme wealth and prosperity. Collect a live Carmel Valley Tarantula and bring it to school where upon you will receive a crisp 10-dollar bill to invest in a high yield savings account or mutual fund and pile up millions of dollars. Millionaire tycoon Stadille (that's me) made his fortune the same way! He will release the unharmed Tarantula to you in November where you may return it to its home. These friendly creatures will be used to educate the public about spider friends. Deals may not be combined. Investing assumes risks and CUSD or Tycoon Stadille are not responsible for financial losses. Tarantulas are a possible choking hazard. Do not engage in this activity if you have allergies to hairy legs.

 Today's Menus: Breakfast: Freshly Baked Scone, Yogurt Parfait, and Honey Nut Cheerios.

Lunch: Chicken Strips w/chips, All Beef Hot Dog, Chicken Taquitos, or a Cheese & Cracker Bento Box.
