Ashe County Schools to Honor Local Veterans November 6

ASHE COUNTY, N.C. — Ashe County Schools will honor the brave men and women who have served our nation during its annual Veterans Day celebration on Friday, November 6, 2026. Students, staff and community members will come together to recognize local veterans and express gratitude for their courage, sacrifice and dedication to protecting the freedoms Americans enjoy every day.

The celebration will begin with a drive-thru parade at 9:30 a.m. at Westwood Elementary School, giving students and staff an opportunity to show their appreciation for Ashe County's hometown heroes. At 10 a.m., veterans will be escorted to the Ashe County High School gymnasium, where a Veterans Day ceremony will begin at 10:15 a.m. The ceremony will serve as a heartfelt tribute to those who have answered the call to serve our country.

Ashe County Schools invites veterans, their families and community members to participate in this special day of recognition. The district encourages everyone to help spread the word so that local veterans know they are welcome, valued and appreciated.

Ashe County Schools is proud to honor those who have sacrificed so much in service to our nation and is grateful for the opportunity to say, "Thank you for your service."

###

