HERSHEY LIONS CLUB FOUNDATION

COMMUNITY SERVICE SCHOLARSHIP

Scholarship Description:

This is a one-time scholarship of $1000.00 awarded to a graduating, high school senior who shows outstanding participation in community and volunteer service. One scholarship will be awarded to a student from Hershey High School.

Guidelines for Application and Selection:

1. The applicant must be a resident of Derry Township, Dauphin County, and attend Hershey High School.
2. The graduating senior should be planning to attend either a two or four-year college or university or a two-year technical or trade school.
3. Selection will be based on the applicant's community and volunteer service, academic achievement, and written recommendations.
4. The scholarship will be awarded without regard to race, gender, or religion.

The Scholarship Application Form Requirements are:

1. Completed application form.
2. Two letters of recommendation. These can be from volunteer coordinators, high school administrators, teachers, counselors, or religious leaders.
3. Most recent transcript of grades.
4. An autobiography (no longer than one typed page and double spaced) with an emphasis on community and volunteer service.

The selection of the scholarship recipient will be the responsibility of the Hershey Lions Club Foundation.
