

Currently Serving at Marist School

REV. JOHN HARHAGER, S.M.

As president of Marist School from 2008 until 2017, Father Harhager oversaw the most successful capital campaign in the school's history. His election as Vicar General of the Society of Mary forced his resignation as school president, but after his 8-year term in Rome ended in 2025, he returned to Marist School as rector.

Harhager has held a number of other leadership roles with the Society of Mary on both the provincial and international levels. He was provincial of the former Washington, D.C. province (1989-1994) and previously served 12 years in the General Administration as Assistant General and General Bursar.

REV. RALPH OLEK, S.M.

Father Olek claims that teaching 7th graders keeps him young. This fall, Olek begins his 50th year of teaching at Marist School. He previously taught at Marist from 1968-1970 (the first year while still a seminarian), 1974-1981, 1983-1988, and has been here continuously since 1992. He also serves as superior of the Atlanta community and previously spent his summer break filling in for vacationing priests in Hawaii.

REV. MARK KENNEY, S.M.

Alumni chaplain since 2018, Father Kenney taught science at Marist School while still a seminarian. From 1973 until 1975, he taught eighth graders, along with tenth grade biology the second year. Fr. Kenney also was a seminary professor in Homebush, Australia and served at Marist College Suva in Fiji.

REV. JOHN ULRICH, S.M.

Current Marist School Chaplain Ulrich is serving at Marist School for the third time. As Brother John, he taught history and religion from 1973 until 1985.

After his ordination, he returned to the Marist community in 1990 as vocation director, teaching part-time from 1992 until 1996. After many years in campus ministry at the university level, Ulrich returned to Marist School in 2025.

REV. KEVIN DUGGAN, S.M.

Father Duggan is also serving Marist School for a third time. He taught Sacraments in the Theology Department in 1983-1984 in his apostolic year, before he took his final vows. After his ordination, he returned to Marist to teach theology and work in Campus Ministry, eventually becoming director of Campus Ministry, leading all the retreat programs at that time (Damascus, Genesis, and Emmaus). He also developed the Peer Ministry Program with Claire Walls. Duggan spent several years in campus and parish ministry before returning to Marist School as chaplain in 2025.

Service on the Marist School Board of Trustees

VERY REV. JOSEPH HINDELANG, S.M.

Currently serving his second term as provincial for the U.S. Province of the Society of Mary, Hindelang has spent most of his priestly career in higher education. Until his election as provincial in 2021, Hindelang was principal of Notre Dame Preparatory School in Pontiac, Michigan, a position he had held since 2000. Fr. Hindelang also previously served as the provincial for the former Boston province from 1992 until 1998.

REV. PAUL FRECHETTE, S.M.

Father Frechette served as U.S. provincial from 2015 until 2021. He also served in the General Administration as assistant general from 2001 until 2009. Frechette was previously president of the board of directors for Fe Y Vida, a nonprofit Catholic leadership institute, and served for many years at St. Francis of Assisi-St. Blaise, a multicultural church in Brooklyn.

REV. TIMOTHY (TED) KEATING, S.M.

Father Keating served as provincial for the former Atlanta province (2006-2009) and became the first provincial for the new U.S. province from 2009 until 2015. Before that he was executive director of the Conference of Major Superiors of Men (CMSM) which ministers to priests and brothers of 317 Catholic religious communities of men. Keating is committed to social justice and has served Hispanic ministries, including supporting the formation of Centro Hispano Marista.

REV. RENÉ ITURBE, S.M.

Longtime superior and pastor of Notre Dame des Victoires, former Marist church in San Francisco, Father Iturbe also served as vicar provincial. In 2018, he became chaplain of detention ministry for the San Francisco and Marin County jails, drawn to that ministry due to his "bottom line belief that everyone is made in the image of God." Today, Fr. Iturbe is superior of the Marist Center of the West in San Francisco.

REV. LEON OLSZAMOWSKI, S.M.

Currently Corporate President for Notre Dame Preparatory School and Marist Academy, Father Olszamowski, along with Fr. Hindelang, was one of the founders of the Pontiac, Michigan school over 30 years ago. Olszamowski has spent most of his career as a Marist educator in Michigan, where he is known as a strict disciplinarian with a twinkle in his eye.

Previously Served at Marist School

REV. WILLIAM F. ROWLAND, S.M.

Father Rowland shepherded the school community through the unprecedented time of the COVID pandemic. After eight years as special assistant to the president (2009-2017), Rowland was named interim president when Fr. Harhager joined the general administration in Rome, but when the planned successor, Joel Konzen, became auxiliary bishop, Fr. Rowland's position as president was made permanent. He served in that role until 2023, when he was succeeded by J. D. Childs, Marist's first lay president. After two years as rector, Rowland retired from Marist School and moved to Washington, D.C. Currently, he is parochial vicar for the U.S. Province.

REV. DAVID MUSSO, S.M.

California native Father Musso served as school chaplain at Marist from 2001 until 2023. Since then, he has been chaplain at Notre Dame Academy in Duluth, Georgia. Though Fr. Musso has had various occupations, including actor, machinist, professional clown, and criminal defense trial lawyer, his most joy-filled and rewarding career is serving as a priest offering spiritual guidance to students and their families.

REV. PAUL HACHEY, S.M.

Father Hachey served his apostolic year at Marist in 1981 as teacher and coordinator of 7th-9th grade retreats. From 1986 until 1988, he taught religion to 8th, 10th, and 11th graders. After studying canon law, Hachey became judicial vicar, court of appeals for the Archdiocese of Atlanta. He served on the provincial court of appeals until 2017 when he joined the pastoral team at St. Patrick's Parish Church Hill in Sydney, Australia. When the Society of Mary left the parish after staffing the church since 1868, Hachey returned to Atlanta and the Marist School community. He has resumed work as a judge in the Marriage Tribunal for the Archdiocese of Atlanta.

MOST REV. JOEL M. KONZEN, S.M.

In addition to his long tenure as principal at Marist School, Bishop Konzen taught at St. Peter Chanel High School in Bedford, Ohio prior to his ordination (1976-1977) and was principal and president at St. Michael's Catholic Academy in Austin, TX (1992-1997). Konzen played an instrumental role in the establishment of Reach for Excellence and assisted in the founding of two new Catholic schools in Atlanta: Notre Dame Academy and Cristo Rey Atlanta Jesuit High School.

REV. JOHN BECKLEY, S.M.

Father Beckley has the unique distinction of being a member of the last graduating class of Marist College on Ivy Street and an early faculty member on the new campus. Although Fr. Beckley's hospital chaplaincy and pastoral roles have taken him to Ohio, New York, Minnesota, Florida, and West Virginia, he frequently returns to Atlanta to deliver to the provincial archives the Marist artifacts he has collected. He even carries a stadium blanket that once belonged to Marist Superior General Joseph Buckley in his car!

REV. RONALD NIKODEM, S.M.

From 1996 until 2001, Father Nikodem taught math and served as school chaplain at Marist. His subsequent assignments included parochial work in Georgia and West Virginia, as well as several years as campus minister at Notre Dame Prep in Pontiac, Michigan. After his 2023 retirement from NDPMA, Nikodem moved to Wheeling, West Virginia, but frequently travels to central West Virginia to fill in at Holy Rosary in Buckhannon.

REV. JOSEPH FLEURY, CH (COL.-RET.), S.M.

Father Joseph Fleury, CH (Col.-Ret.) credits his experience as a teacher and coach for preparing him for the chaplaincy, which he calls the largest young adult ministry. Shortly after his ordination, Fleury taught religion and coached swimming at Marist School, until 1988 when he enlisted in the Army as a chaplain. He sees a clear connection between chaplaincy and Marist charism, both of which focus on healing, reconciling, and mercy.

REV. PAUL CABRITA, S.M.

Father Cabrita spent his apostolic year at the Atlanta Area School for the Deaf, where he also taught junior high and high school science. After his ordination he taught religion at Marist School from 1998 until 2009. Ministering to the deaf community has been a constant thread through all Cabrita's assignments.

REV. JOHN WALLS, S.M.

In the early 1980s, an exchange program with the New Zealand Marists brought Father Walls to Atlanta and sent Fr. Olek to NZ. Walls spent 1 ½ school years at Marist from 1982 until 1983. At the urging of Bishop Konzen, he returned to Marist in 2008, leading campus ministry and coaching track and field until 2013. Since his return to New Zealand, he has held a variety of formation, administrative, and parochial positions. He currently resides with and cares for retired Marists in Christchurch, while helping with Masses at St. Bede's High School and serving as police chaplain.

REV. JOHN BOLDOC, S.M.

Father Bolduc, who has been active all over the U.S. as well as in Fiji, Senegal, and Jamaica, also worked in campus ministry at Marist School while serving the Latino community at Our Lady of the Assumption from 2012 until 2015. He developed a great respect and appreciation for Marist in Atlanta, praising the values of the staff, leadership, and student body.
