Friday Night Lights

Super Fan and CHS Hall of Famer Joey Lund joined School Board President Colleen Burton and LPS Teacher Julie Adams at the CHS vs SHS game on Friday night! So much fun!

Homecoming Games

Our high schools have had a fun season with their homecoming games and celebrations!

With Many Kudos!

kudos!

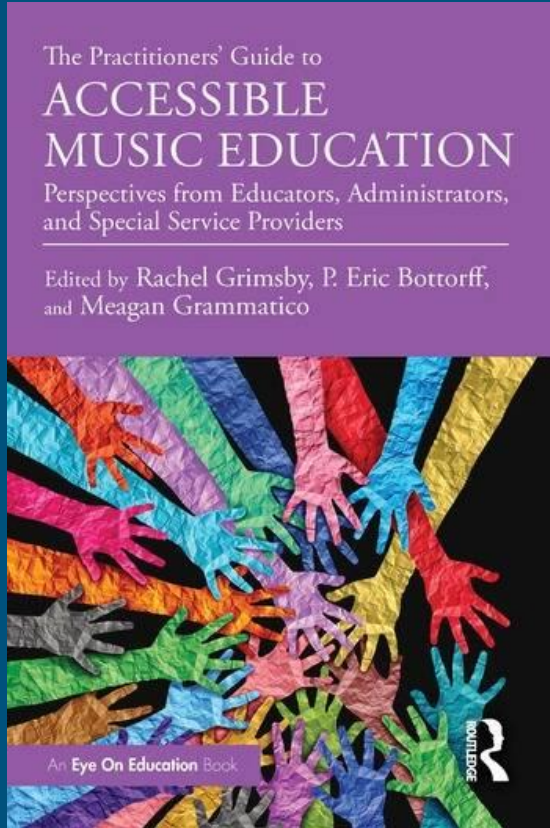

Roosevelt Appreciation

Roosevelt students celebrated Mr B, their building supervisor/custodian!

They shared that “Anyone who knows him knows that he does not sit down. He works all day long ensuring our building is safe and looking good every day! Thank you for all you do, Mr. B!”

Music Teachers are Authors!

LPS Music Teachers Eric Bottorff (Randolph Elementary) and Maegan Grammatico (Roosevelt Elementary) were co-authors and editors of a new book called, “The Practitioner’s’ Guide to Accessible Music Education” !!

Way to go!

MSBOA Marching Band Showcase!

Our LPS marching bands persevered through the rain and cold to put on outstanding performances at the MSBOA Marching Band Showcase!

Star Awards!

Star Awards have made an appearance around the district! A huge congratulations to all staff members that have been awarded! Star Awards are issued by “fans” of an LPS staff member via a $25 donation to the LPS Education Foundation!

Franklin Players Present!

The Franklin Players put on an outstanding performance of “The Somewhat True Tale of Robin Hood” over the weekend! Audiences were left laughing at every turn, and the entire cast and crew showed off their talents in the production!

Garfield Garments and Groceries!

Garfield Garments and Groceries held a ribbon cutting event on Oct. 6, opening the free stores for students, and families in need! Thank you to all of the students, staff, and community partners who make these resources possible! Stay tuned to WDIV-Channel 4 for news coverage this week!
