Established in 1961, Melbourne Central Catholic High School is a Catholic, Diocesan, co-educational college preparatory school for students of varied backgrounds, grades 9-12. The FCC and Cognia accredit MCC and the school holds memberships in NCEA, NACAC, and FHSAA.

Mission

Rooted in the tradition of St. Francis of Assisi, Melbourne Central Catholic High School is a transformative, college preparatory high school that develops young men and women in an inclusive community to become servant leaders of our global society.

Vision

As a premier secondary school, Melbourne Central Catholic forms Christian leaders in a culture of humility, integrity, generosity, and inclusivity reflected in our Franciscan tradition. We nurture comprehensive excellence in a vibrant community so that our graduates can live as productive, responsible, faithful, and moral citizens.

Core Values

Humility: Humbling ourselves so that we may seek and promote the good in all of creation.

Generosity: Serving without question, giving without expectation, loving without exception.

Inclusivity: Embracing diversity and respecting our differences.

Integrity: Choosing words and actions that reflect our inner goodness.
