PRESENTATIONS

In person or through a personalized webinar format.

→ Navigating the DDD Service System

Learn about the DDD service system; what to expect during the eligibility application and intake process; and how to work with a support coordinator (care manager) to get needed services.

→ Employment for People with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities

Learn how students with intellectual and developmental disabilities can prepare for employment and the services available to help them find and maintain competitive employment in the general workforce after they leave school.

→ Preparing for a Bright Future: First-Hand Experiences of a Person with a Disability

Learn about navigating adulthood from the perspective of a person with a disability who works for the DDD Office of Transition, covering topics like Preparing for Adulthood and Keys to Student Success.

Family Guidance Days

An opportunity for students and families to schedule 1:1 meetings with a DDD Transition Specialist

Schedule our presentation, "Navigating the DDD Service System," for your school or organization. Then schedule a DDD Family Guidance Day, an opportunity for students and families to meet, one-to-one, on-site with a DDD Transition Specialist and get their transition-related questions answered.
