- Birthdays: Today we celebrate the birthday of Paysley Marcum. Over the weekend we celebrate the birthdays of Elijah Ewing, Gydan Carpenter, Brantley Tomcisin and Brinlea Humphrey.
- Today for lunch we will have: LV Bowls and a Biscuit/ As well as our pizza & sandwich options.
- There will be a Youth to Youth Meeting after school today in the library.
- Students, a reminder that today is the end of the first quarter. Be sure to check your grades on Jumprope and finish the day strong!
- The Fall Festival will be Wednesday, October 28th from 2:30-4:30. Tickets are $7 and get you a hotdog, s'more, and bottled water. Events include: bon fire, hayride, and an inflatable obstacle course. Tickets can be purchased next week, Monday-Wednesday, during your lunch. Spirit Week will be October 26th - 30th. Kicking off the week with PJs on Monday.
- As you have seen on flyers around the school, the Sophomore Class is hosting the annual Haunted High School on Saturday, October 24, from 5–10 PM at the high school. Admission is $15 at the door and they will accept cash or card. Donations for the Panther Pantry will also be accepted. We hope to see you there!
- Happy final day of Red Ribbon Week! Today is Hat Day, let's put a cap on drugs! This week's theme, "Make A Difference. Be A Hero. Stay Drug Free.™" reminds us that heroism lives in everyday choices. Each time you choose health and positivity, you're choosing your future. We're proud of you for committing to a drug-free life. Keep being strong, keep believing in yourself, and keep being the hero your future needs. Remember to submit all flyers today! The winner will be announced next week and will receive an order out lunch on LVHS SADD. Thank you to everyone for participating this week...let this be a reminder to us all year that remaining drug free is our Superpower!
- Have a great day!
