Crockett County Middle School's basketball teams won their hope openers Monday night to both advance to 2-0 records for the early season, prior to returning to Medina Tuesday night for second-round play in the Blue Suede Tournament.

Coach Jamar Turner's Lady Cavaliers received 13-point performances from Trinity Pankey and Jordin Bond to defeat Jackson Careers & Technology (JCT) 36-12 in Monday's first game. Crockett's defense held the visitors to just one made field goal through the first three quarters. Lond'n Armour supported the Lady Cavs' top scorers with four points. The girls will face USJ Tuesday at 6 p.m. at South Gibson.

Coach Tyler Gadlen's Cavs used a big third quarter to put away the JCT boys 40-26 behind a 10-point effort from Jayce Cobb and seven apiece from Reese Jones and Jordan Young. Crockett tallied 15 points in the third period alone after netting 16 in the entire first half. The Cavs will face Bolivar Tuesday night at South Gibson at 7:20.
