Class of 2026 Acceptances

Will McBride '24 is currently a junior at Texas A&M University, where he is a member of the Corps of Cadets and is pursuing dual degrees in Business Honors and Supply Chain Management. During his sophomore year, Will had the unique honor of serving as Second Leash for Revielle X, Texas A&M's beloved mascot.

"For our family, St. Pius X provided the perfect balance of rigorous academics, athletics, leadership, and involvement. Kate '22 and Will left Pius prepared not only for the academic demands of college, but also with the confidence, discipline, and leadership skills to take advantage of every opportunity that came their way."
— Terry '93 & Jen '90 McBride

Maggie Maloney '26 is currently attending the United States Naval Academy, where she is continuing to grow as a student and leader. During her time at St. Pius X, Maggie was recognized as the Senior Female Athlete of the Year and received the Archbishop's Award for her commitment to excellence in faith and academics, honoring the impact she made on the St. Pius X community.

"Maggie graduated as a faith-filled, well-educated, confident, and athletic young lady, filled with gratitude about her future. On behalf of our entire family, thank you."
— Kerianne Maloney
