CONGRATULATIONS TO OCTOBER'S EMPLOYEE RECOGNITION WINNERS!

Faculty of the Month:

FIONA CAMPO

Special Education Teacher

Here's what people who submitted the nominations had to say about Fiona:

Ms. Campo always goes above and beyond for students no matter what. She also makes an effort to ask students about their personal lives and build meaningful connections. Even if it's your first time meeting her, she's always willing to help in whatever way possible. She is committed to all her students, all the time.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OCTOBER'S EMPLOYEE RECOGNITION WINNERS!

Employee of the Month:
JOHN KUPCZAK
Carpenter

Here's what people who submitted the nominations had to say about John:

- Always Going Above and Beyond: John is an incredible asset to the Visual Arts Department, always willing to lend a hand with projects big and small, well beyond his role as a carpenter!
- A True Craftsman: His artistry and attention to detail shine through in everything he does, from redesigning classroom shelving and repairing tabletops to creating a beautiful arched display cabinet for student artwork.
- Always Finding Solutions: Whether figuring out how to transport a new kiln through the building or reworking classroom spaces, John brings creativity, efficiency, and kindness to every challenge!

CONGRATULATIONS TO OCTOBER'S SUSTAINABILITY CHAMPION

Student Sustainability

BENJAMIN DRUCKER

Here's what people who submitted the nominations had to say about Benjamin:

Benjamin has been involved in environmentalism for a long time. He's been a dedicated member of the Environmental Club at OPRF for all four years and is now the club's president. Before that, he was part of the Brooks Middle School Earth Action Team. He's also made an effort to connect with the Buildings and Grounds team to find ways to improve practices around the school, including cafeteria composting.
