

The poster features a vibrant background of a football stadium at night with bright lights and a cheering crowd. At the top center is the NFL shield logo. Below it, the words "THURSDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL" are written in a bold, metallic font within a shield-shaped frame. Underneath this, the word "TAILGATE" is written in a large, white, distressed font on a red banner. Below "TAILGATE", the words "THEME DAY LUNCH" are written in a blue, sans-serif font on a white banner. At the bottom of the main title section, the date "THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 2026" is written in white on a red banner. The entire title section is framed by white stars and red and white confetti. Below the title section is a large wooden sign with a black chalkboard surface. The sign has white arrows and 'X' and 'O' symbols on its sides, suggesting a game plan. On the chalkboard, the words "ON THE MENU:" are written in white, distressed font. Below this, a list of five items is written in white, each preceded by a red star: "Cheeseburger Bites", "Gameday Potatoes", "Dole Wiggles", "All Star Sports Grahams", and "Milk". At the bottom of the poster, there are two football helmets: a white Indianapolis Colts helmet on the left and a dark blue Houston Texans helmet on the right. Between them is a football with the NFL logo and "TNF" on it. There are also two large red, white, and blue pom-poms on the far left and right. A blue banner with the words "GO TEAM!" in white, distressed font is at the very bottom. The background shows a green football field and a stadium filled with spectators.
