CAMP HOLIDAY TRAILS

A camp for children and teens with medical needs

COMMUNITY GROUPS

SCAN ME!

CHT Community Groups create a place where families navigating childhood chronic or complex medical conditions can feel understood, supported, and connected year-round. CHT Community Groups meet both virtually and in person at Camp Holiday Trails, located at 400 Holiday Trails Lane, in Charlottesville.

Learn more about our Mixed Diagnoses, and Type 1 Diabetes Community Groups at campholidaytrails.org/family-camps or scan the qr code above.

If you have any questions or would like to learn more, please contact our Director of Programs, Caitlin Carroll, at caitlin@campholidaytrails.org.

Camp Holiday Trails is a nonprofit community organization. These materials and the activity described herein are not sponsored or endorsed by the Albemarle County School Board.

CAMP HOLIDAY TRAILS

A camp for children and teens with medical needs

FAMILY CAMPS

Family Camp is where families unplug, reconnect, and make lasting memories.

Bringing together families of children with medical needs in a welcoming and supportive community.

UPCOMING FAMILY CAMPS

- Nov. 14, 2026: Mixed Diagnoses Family Camp (RSVP by 10/30/26)
- April 3, 2027: Food Allergy Camp (RSVP by 3/12/27)
- April 17: UVA Neuro Family Camp (RSVP by 3/26/27)

SCAN ME!

Register and learn more at campholidaytrails.org/family-camps

Questions? Contact our Director of Programs, Caitlin Carroll, at caitlin@campholidaytrails.org.

Camp Holiday Trails is a nonprofit community organization. These materials and the activity described herein are not sponsored or endorsed by the Albemarle County School Board.