- Correspondence – A thank-you card was received from Emily McVicker expressing her sincere appreciation to Dr. Thomsen and the Board of Education for their support of an incredible educational opportunity for our students. More than 600 students in grades 6–12 experienced a performance of The Diary of Anne Frank at Maples Repertory Theatre and toured the Anne Frank: A History for Today exhibition. Emily shared that their support allowed students to step beyond the classroom, connect with history, and better understand the importance of remembering the past. She expressed her gratitude for the continued support of students and their educational experiences.
