Message from the PSPA

With the school year fully back in swing, our PSPA volunteers are helping to bring the Pingry community to life through social events, celebrations of our athletic teams, informational activities and appreciation efforts, strengthening our connections and supporting our students, families and faculty. We invite you to meet those making it happen at our first Volunteer Mingle of the 2026 - 2027 school year. Join us on Thursday, Oct 29 from 7-9 p.m. at Trap Rock Restaurant and Brewery in Berkeley Heights for an informal and fun night out. RSVP now to help us celebrate your incredible dedication to the PSPA and our school!

Highlights from Past Events

Committed to keeping our families informed and abreast of the school's culture, policies, procedures, and practices, the PSPA hosts Casual Conversations throughout the year. These informal updates not only provide information, but also provide a forum to ask questions and facilitate discussion in a smaller, more intimate environment. In addition to our
