SHPS Family & Alumni 2026

| Audio | Video |
|---|---|
| [Madeline]This is our third annual alumni and Family Day | People in line for photos as others climb the staircase with a large purple and gold L S U Health Shreveport logo on one side |
| for the School of Health Professions and Sciences, | Parents smiling and laughing as they sign in |
| where we celebrate our first year students and their family, as well as host our alumni reunion. | Groups posing for photos holding signs proclaiming future O T, future P A, future P T, and Proud alumni |
| The festivities kick off with our common hour event, And in the afternoon, we have a new tradition, which is our faculty research poster event, where all of our faculty across our ten different academic programs are showcasing all the research they've been doing. | Groups of research posters in a large open gymnasium. Faculty from 10 different programs stand at their posters and discuss their research with students and other faculty members. |
| The McCulloch Endowed Lecture Series was established to celebrate | Woman with dark, straight hair pulled over her shoulders, she is wearing a brown sweater and standing in front of a purple backgroundText:Madeline Barclay, Ed DAssistant Dean of Student Affairs, S H P S |
| our previous dean, Doctor Joe McCulloch, and his impactful tenure on our school. | Group seated at tables listening to Dr. Dunn introduce the speaker |
| And this year's McCulloch endowed speaker is Doctor Chris Powers from USC. | Man in suit a front of room giving a presentation |
| And the following day, We're going to have 300 students on campus and their families, where they get to show off all the things that they've learned so far. | Dr. Dunn in the center of a round auditorium with students and families seated in a circle around her. |
| And then our programs will break out into their discipline specific sessions. Where they'll get to hear from their faculty | Breakout sessions in different assembly halls being led by the heads of the physical therapy and physician assistant programs |
| as well as do visits to the anatomy lab. | Family members in the anatomy lab being shown a knee joint |
| [Dr. Dunn]Thank you for being here this morning. Thank you for entrusting us LSU Health Sciences Center, and particularly | Dr. Dunn at a podium in the center of a circle auditorium speaking to students and family seated all around her.Text:Sharon Dunn, PT, PhDDean, School of Health Professions and Sciences |

| Audio | Video |
| --- | --- |
| the School of Health Professions and Sciences, with your kiddos and with your loved ones, because we take that trust very seriously. | Different groups in the audience listening to the presentation |
| [Landon]Thank you, alumni, for coming back to your alma mater. Your association with the school does not didn't end at graduation. We continue to see all the success that y'all are doing. Outside of school. And we hope to be where y'all are one day. | Young man with dark hair and a mustache stands at a podium in the middle of a circular auditoriumText:Landon TrahanPresident, Student Government Association |
| [Madeline]It's so nice to take a break, allow our students to have their families come to campus, | Smiling students and family pose with signs proclaiming their programs |
| celebrate all their accomplishments, | Large audience in circular auditorium clapping |
| and get to see our campus. | Lobby filled with people taking photos and chatting as others climb stairs bordered by a purple and gold L S U Health Shreveport logo. |