REMEMBER • RENEW • CELEBRATE!
60th ANNIVERSARY
DEDICATION OF ST. CHARLES CHURCH
SAN CARLOS
1966-2026

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - OCTOBER 25, 2026

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

With hearts filled with gratitude and joy, we gather today as one family of faith to celebrate a significant milestone in the history of our beloved St. Charles Parish: the 60th anniversary of the dedication of our church building on December 4, 1966. Although the actual anniversary falls in December, we joyfully celebrate this special occasion today, October 25, as we also look forward to the 100th anniversary of the founding of our parish in 2028.

Today is more than a celebration of a church building or a remembrance of important dates. It is, above all, a celebration of God's faithfulness, and the enduring faith of His people.

Our parish story began on August 31, 1928 when St. Charles Parish was established under the leadership of Archbishop Edward Hanna to serve the growing Catholic community of San Carlos. From its humble beginnings on Walnut Street, the parish continued to grow, eventually moving to its present location on Tamarack Avenue in 1951.

Through the dedicated leadership of Father James J. O'Donnell, pastor from 1951 to 1966, and the generous sacrifices of countless parishioners, our present church became a reality. On December 4, 1966, it was solemnly dedicated under the leadership of Archbishop Joseph Thomas McGucken. In 2011, under the pastorship of Father David Ghiorso, our church was renovated and rededicated, continuing its sacred mission as a house of prayer and worship.

For sixty years, this church has been a spiritual home for generations of families. Within these walls, children have been baptized, young people have received the sacraments, couples have exchanged their marriage vows, and families have found comfort in times of sorrow. Above all, the Holy Eucharist has remained the heart of our parish life, nourishing our faith and uniting us as one family in Christ.

Today, we remember with profound gratitude the priests, religious, parishioners, benefactors, and volunteers, both living and deceased, whose faith, prayers, and sacrifices have made St. Charles Parish what it is today. We stand on the shoulders of those who came before us, and we are entrusted with the sacred responsibility of passing on this beautiful legacy of faith to future generations.

As your pastor, I am deeply grateful for your generosity, devotion, and commitment to our parish community. As we journey toward our centennial celebration in 2028, may this anniversary inspire us to renew our faith, strengthen our unity, and continue building a parish where Christ is encountered, the Gospel is lived, and God's love is shared.

May our patron, Saint Charles Borromeo, continue to intercede for our parish, and may God bless our beloved St. Charles community today and for generations to come.

Happy 60th Anniversary! May we continue to honor our past, celebrate our faith, and build our future together in Christ.

With gratitude and prayers in Christ,

Fr. Roy
