1055 CHANGE OF SCHOOL STATUS

Statement of Intentions

It is the intention of the Board of Trustees that any decision regarding the opening, deactivation, or closing of schools will be delivered based upon reasonable fluctuations in student enrollment. A decision to open or close a school will be dictated by long term trends regarding changes in student population within a particular community and/or area.

The Board will make every effort to provide community based educational opportunities that first and foremost, meet NRS requirements, while promoting a legitimate academic experience.

1060 Enrollment Guidelines

1. A minimum of seven (7) students are required before the Board will consider opening a school.

2. If an existing school has less than five (5) students the Board will consider placing it on inactive status or closure.

1065 Opening a School

Decisions to open or maintain a school will be based upon student numbers
