KnutsonConstruction

IN THE LOOP

St. Louis Park - Lenox Community Center | October 2026

PROJECT MILESTONES

- Prepping for concrete pour for monument sign
- 10/28 - Furniture moves in
- 10/28 - Punch list starts

PHOTO DESCRIPTIONS

1. Little theater completed
2. Storefront installed for new reception space at main entrance
3. New reception desk counter top installed + all walls painted

FUN FACT

The Transformed Spaces: When the school was decommissioned in 1975 due to shrinking student populations, the building was extensively refurbished. Upon its grand dedication as the Lenox Community Center in 1979, the former classrooms were transformed into high-demand recreational spaces, including a custom wood shop, an art studio, a billiard room, and even a small movie theater.