What is Title I?

Title I is part of a federal law that grants money to select schools to:

- help meet students' educational needs and goals,
- provide teachers with professional development, and
- support school and parent partnerships.

How does a school become Title I?

- Elementary Schools: (55%) or more of students qualify for the Student in Poverty designation (Student in Poverty Classification Metric)
- Middle Schools – (65%) or more of students qualify for the Student in Poverty designation (Student in Poverty Classification Metric)
- High Schools – (75%) or more of students qualify for the Student in Poverty designation (Student in Poverty Classification Metric)
