What Kids Will Learn

Basic theater skills, including but not limited to projection, articulation, public speaking, self-confidence and communication skills.

Why Theater?

Studies show kids involved in theater grow their vocabularies, improve reading and communication skills, and interact better in public.

Meet Your Director, Mark Tullis

A retired teacher with 35 years of teaching experience, a master's degree in elementary education and a minor in theater arts. Mark is also an award-winning St. Louis regional theater actor who has taught children's acting classes for 15 years.

Class size is limited. Price: $175 per student. Sibling discounts available when you sign up multiple siblings. References available from past parents!

Questions about fees and registration? Email, call or text. Parents are welcome to call with questions.
