c. High
   i. The Turkey Trot is on Friday. Students will run around the neighborhood in Thanksgiving Spirit winning prizes for themselves and their homebase.
   ii. Next week is the deadline for applying to CSUs and UCs. Students should be finishing up all their college applications.
   iii. With five weeks left in the semester, it's important that students raise their grades as high as they can by studying, getting help in tutoring, and scoring as high as possible on tests. In high school tests are worth 80-95% of students' grades. Make sure your student is getting the help they need to get the grades they want!
   iv. Is your student going to be driving soon? If students want to park in the student section of the parking lot they must show proof of a driver's license, insurance, and registration.
   v. The Winter Play is December 19-21. Come support our drama club.
