Title I Annual Parent Partnership

Welcoming Parents as Key Partners & MVPs in Student Success

Overall 2026-2027 Allocation: $480,000

Federal Supplemental Funding Delivers $480,000 Directly to Hillsdale Students

Understanding Supplemental Funding

- Federal Grant Program:
Title I is a federal program providing extra financial assistance to schools to help every student meet academic standards.

- Supplemental Boost:
Title I funds do NOT replace general school operations; they provide extra staff, materials, and family events.

- Targeted Impact:
Designed to support academic growth in reading and mathematics through direct instructional support.

1. Federal Level

U.S. Department of Education allocates Title I grant funds based on census data.

2. State Oversight

Michigan Department of Education administers and monitors grant distributions.

3. Local Impact

Hillsdale Community Schools receives $480,000 dedicated to direct student support.

$480,000 Allocation Drives Staff, Instructional Support & Intervention Resources
