Policy Number: J113
Title: Copyright Material
Section: Operations

The Joint Committee recognizes the importance of encouraging the production of literary, artistic and intellectual works of lasting benefit to society through the protection of the rights of the creators of those works. The Joint Committee also recognizes the importance of the dissemination of new ideas and new forms of expression. The Joint Committee further recognizes that the federal Copyright Act makes it unlawful for anyone to make a copy of a copyrighted work without the permission of the copyright owner, except to the extent permitted by the Copyright Act, in particular the provision on "fair use." The Joint Committee further recognizes that severe penalties are provided for violation of the Act.

The Director shall promulgate guidelines which shall govern the use of copyrighted materials within EASTERN.
