Help fill TABS' halls: Recruit a future Tornado!

Alas, TABS is once again looking for its next class of biomedical scholars. Interested current eighth- and ninth-grader must complete the district's Gold Seal Programs and Schools of Choice application, which opens Nov. 7. Acceptance is based on a lottery, with no academic prerequisites for admission.

Families are encouraged to view all the district's options at the Choices Expo, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Nov. 7 at Wilkerson-Greines Activities Center. Register here.

Last, TABS will hold its GSPOC Open House from 5:30 to 7 p.m. Nov. 12. This is an opportunity to see what TABS has to offer. No registration required.

Find your dream school at FWISD College Night

Fort Worth ISD's annual College Night will take place from 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday at Amon G. Carter Jr. Exhibits Hall. It's free, but you must register in SchooLinks. Pay parking is available at the venue, or park for free at Farrington Field. Contact: Ms. Asbury

Raising funds at Raising Cane's

Fill your belly and support the 12th-grade class through its Raising Cane's fundraiser. This will take place from noon to 5 p.m. Oct. 29 at the South University Drive location.

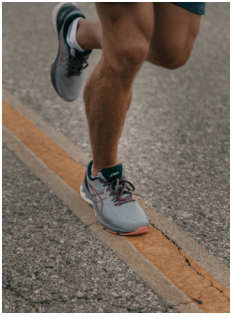

Whether red or blue, America needs you!

HEROES

Jonas Salk

Born in New York City in 1914, Jonas Salk was a pioneer in vaccine research. Thanks to his polio vaccine, the average number of cases of polio in the United States dropped from more than 45,000 in the 1950s to 910 in 1962. The next year, he founded the Salk Institute for Biological Studies. Salk died in 1995. Read more
