Presentations & Special Recognition:

Disney Elementary Presentation.

Growing Readers Together: Disney Elementary & Oakland University Early Literacy Partnership. Principal Amy Porter shared that every Tuesday OU teaches an early literacy class at Disney. They start with a lecture then they have an opportunity for hands-on learning with some of the first-grade Disney students. About half of the first-grade students participate in this program. Dr. Steph Jackson from OU talked about how the college students are learning the art of teaching, and Mrs. Porter shared feedback from Disney students and parents. In January they will work with kindergarten students.

Benefits Presentation.

Jennifer Fox from Gallagher gave the board a baseline overview of the insurance plans offered in the district and proposed changes. Any changes will have to be negotiated with the unions during bargaining.

Citizen: Non-Agenda Items:

Evelena Scott – She lives next door to the Dooley Center. Since June 2022, she has had issues with a tree on the property line, which was removed, and a fence installed. However, during the winter, snow was plowed against the fence it is causing it to bow and the vinyl slats to break. She also stated there were chemical weed killers sprayed approximately 8.5 feet into her yard without giving her advanced notice. She is asking the district to take responsibility for these issues.

Tony Engle – FHS Parent –He stated that several years ago, the tennis coach was making inappropriate comments to the players and nothing was done by the district/athletic director. He is asking the school board to investigate this situation.

Molly Magnotte, District Parent – She reiterated her request from the last few years of the district establishing a parent code of conduct.
