🎗️ Today is Day FOUR of National Red Ribbon Week, and we loved how so many of you were Spreading the Aloha yesterday. It was Mr. Abate's first period class that had the greatest number of students showing their dedication to yesterday's message. Congratulations! We hope you enjoy your treats. Today, CMS is Proud to Be Drug Free! We hope that all of you are wearing Carmel Gear or LOTS of RED! Teachers, please complete the form that Mrs. Wells emailed you this morning to let us know how many students are showing commitment to the Red Ribbon Pledge. Tomorrow is the last day of National Red Ribbon week. We hope you will continue to make positive choices and join in Scaring Away Drugs by wearing your Halloween Costumes! Anyone wearing a costume and showing their dedication to the Red Ribbon Pledge can meet Mrs. Wells in the main quad on Friday for a special treat during break!

🎃 Hooray! A Falliday cheer to Luke Miller - the wizard of pumpkin weight guessing! Their best guess has won them the library pumpkin, tipping the scales at a wondrous 58.75909091kg! Congratulations Luke - visit the librarians to figure out how you're going to get this beast of a pumpkin home!

🎃 MORE Pumpkin News: Pumpkin Carving Contest! Who carved it best? Stop on by the library to see Advanced Domestic Arts pumpkins on display and pick your favorite design. The voting form can be found on the CMS Library Webpage. May the best pumpkin win!

🌐 Today is the LAST day to sign up for the GeoBee! Don't miss your chance to participate and show off your geography skills! The Preliminary Round will be held next Wednesday, so stay tuned for those rosters and meeting locations. Sign up today!

👤 Come check out the Día de los Muertos exhibit in the library that was created by the CMS Spanish classes to remember the lives of loved ones who are no longer with us. We invite all students and staff to add a framed photograph of loved ones. Classes are encouraged to visit the exhibit and participate in the Dia de los Muertos activities taking place in the Library, November 3rd -19th. ¡Gracias!

🏆 WiffleNews: In Game 2 of the ALCS Playoffs, the Silva Swagasaurs opened the scoring yesterday with a line drive homerun from Joel Olson who went 3 for 3 with 2 runs scored. The Krislyn Krushers used an effective strategy by sprinkling their big RBI hitters throughout the line up but just couldn't get hits past the sparkling defense. The Swagasaurs got an insurance run from Ethan Gorback in the 4th. Facing elimination in the bottom of the 4th, the Krusher's finally got Raphi Nissim home with Bryce Stephens' RBI fielder's choice, but the Swagasaurs advanced to the World Series with a 7-1 win. Today the Littletown Lemonades must win vs the M-Dawg Elites to keep their season alive.

Other Lunchtime Activities:

🔬 Attention all Science Olympians: Please make sure you have filled out the Science Olympiad application on the Google Classroom page before today's lunchtime meeting being held in Mr. Guzzis room.

📝 Today's INK-tober's Word of the Day is TUSK. Break out that sketch paper and pens and let your imagination take you where it may. Hope to see you today or any day during this month at lunch in the Library!

🎵 The Songwriter's Club meets in Mr. Loosley's Room C9 at lunchtime.
