VI. ODEW Report Card Update – Tim Weber, Superintendent
Tim Weber, Superintendent shared an update on the recently released ODEW report card for Wyoming City Schools. Mr. Weber noted that we use the data from the report card to identify areas of celebration for our students and also areas of improvement in relation to curriculum, instruction and assessment. The report card has six indicators that are weighted to generate an overall rating and Wyoming earned an overall rating of 5 Stars, the highest, which is defined as "Significantly exceeds state standards." The District earned five stars in all categories except College, Career, Workforce and Military Readiness which was 4 Stars. With regard to Achievement, the District has a 108.8 Performance Index Score out of a maximum of 110.2. Mr. Weber reviewed all indicators: Achievement, Progress, Graduation, Early Literacy, Gap Closing and CCMR. Mrs. Johnson highlighted the financial data presented in the report card ranking Wyoming as #1 out of 257 districts (similar districts) in the percentage spent on classroom instruction. Mrs. Henke shared that in addition to the ODEW report card data, community members can additional information in the recently released Quality Profile.

VII. Committee Reports

Belonging and Inclusion Collaborative – Mr. Weber and Dr. Simmons reported that the committee met on September 15th to plan for 26-27 priorities. Discussion was focused on creating belonging in ordinary moments and how to respond when belonging is disrupted.

Citizens Advisory Committee – Mrs. Zoller reported that the first meeting of the 26-27 school year is scheduled for October 6th.

District Leadership Team / Student Achievement – Mr. Weber reported that DLT met on August 31st to review 26-27 goals, team protocols, PD planning for September 21st and reflect on opening week activities.

Facilities Committee – Mr. Weber reported that work is progressing quickly at Hilltop. The community update held on site on September 14th was well attended. Work on the underground detention is nearing completion at Elm. There have been very few weather delays.

Finance Committee – Mrs. Johnson reported that the Finance Committee met earlier in the evening and reviewed a primary facilities financial update, the FY25 audit report, 25-26 ODEW Report Card financial data, the salary and benefit analytic for FY27, and the cash balance benchmark.
